CITY YIELDS

Capital of Santo Domingo is Forced to Surrender

Enthusiasm Prevails Throughout Entire Country

President Takes Refuge on German Warship After Stubborn Resistance of the Bombardment--All Proposals Rejected by the Rebels.

Cape Haytien, Nov. 25.—Dispatches received here from Puerto Plata say that the city of San Domingo was surrendered to the revolutionists yesterday and that President Wos y Gil and his minister took refuge on board a German warship. The dispatches further say that great enthusiasm prevails throughout the country.

On Monday afternoon the peace negotiations were suspended owing to the impossibility of an understanding being arrived at between the government officials and the leaders of the rebellion.

Firing on the city was resumed at 8 o'clock Monday night, resulting in further damages to houses, and the bombardment was continued until early in the morning.

A Hamburg-American line steamer with ammunition on board, consigned to the government, arrived during the bombardment, and began discharging her cargo into lighters, whereupon the revolutionists opened fire on the lighters, and the fort of Domingo returned the fire.

President Wos y Gil requested the ministers of the United States, Belgium, Hayti and Spain to intervene in behalf of the government.

The insurgents refused to accept the terms offered and demanded the immediate capitulation of the city.

United States Minister Powell informed the revolutionary chiefs that periodical revolutions ought to cease, because they interrupted commercial relations with other countries and augmented the debt of Santo Domingo, which was without means to pay foreign creditors. The minister said further that these periodical revolutions endangered the peace of his government and of the governments of other nations, and that the present revolution, if continued, would imperil the sovereignty of Santo Domingo. His pleading with the rebels was in vain, and it was expected that the president would capitulate at any moment.

ALL THE PROPOSALS Offered by the Dominican Government Were Rejected by Rebels

Washington, Nov. 25.—Captain Briggs, of the cruiser Baltimore, cabling under date of November 23, from San Juan, Porto Rico, where he went to take on coal, advises the navy department as follows:

"At the time of departure of the Baltimore from San Domingo City, on the 21st of November, condition was quiet and the streets in the city had assumed their normal aspect.

"Armistice had been concluded, which is of doubtful duration pending the consideration of the offer of the president to the insurgents to resign his office and leave four ministers in charge of the affairs.

"The insurgents may insist upon naming some of those ministers. The whole question of his successor to be settled by a general election to take place within 24 days.

"Four men of war were anchored at San Domingo City at the time of the Baltimore's departure. The operations about San Domingo City have not resulted in any great casualties of life or property."

The following cablegram was received at the state department from Minister Powell, dated San Domingo, November 23:

"Proposition of San Domingo government is not acceptable. The revolutionists refuse to consider any other terms than immediate surrender and resignation of the president. If the terms are not accepted an assault on the city will be made, but the armistice has been extended until 6 o'clock this evening."

ANXIOUS FOR WAR

On Russians In Manchuria is Governor of Chi Li Province--General Offers His Services to the Chinese Ruler--Martial Feeling in Japan.

London, Nov. 25.—Private advices from Peking are to the effect that General Yuan Shi Kai, governor of Chi Li province, has informed the emperor that he is prepared to declare war against the Russians in Manchuria. General Ma is also said to be ready to march into Shan Hai Kwan at the head of 15,000 men.

London officials regard the far East situation with apprehension. The fact that Russia seems to be fighting for delay, and that she warned Korea not to open the port of Yolaigpho, is regarded as ominous here, and has created a distinctly unfavorable impression in Japan.

The Japanese government has impressed upon Russia the importance of being able to go before parliament with something definite in order to cope with the strong war party which may dominate the Japanese legislature, but these representations have not only been without effect on the Russian negotiators, but their action of exercising a practical dictatorship over Korea so far as the Yalu river territory is concerned, has strengthened the hands of that section of the Japanese who favor immediate war.

The recent sailing of a powerful Japanese squadron under sealed orders has given rise to considerable comment. The suggestion that it may be on the way to intercept Russian reinforcements to the czar's Asiatic squadron is not generally credited, though it is admitted that such action is not improbable. That the question of peace or war lies in the hands of Russia is generally believed.

DILATORY TACTICS Of Russo-Japanese Negotiations Rouse Anger in Leading Cities.

Yokohama, Nov. 25.—No reply has been received from St. Petersburg on the subject of the Japanese overtures and there are many indications that the delay in the negotiations is embarrassing Japanese foreign trade and raising impatience in Japanese popular circles, as shown by public meetings at Tokyo, Yokohama and Osaka, protesting against the ministerial inactivity.

One popular Tokyo newspaper has twice been officially suspended for publishing verses indirectly suggesting the assassination of the ministers. It is also feared that popular feeling may manifest itself December 5, when the Diet meets, unless some decided development in the negotiations occurs in the meantime. The ministers remain reticent, professing confidence in their ability to control the situation.

Gas Explosion Kills Thirteen Miners

Fort Smith, Ark., Nov. 25.—In a terrific explosion of gas in coal mine No. 26 at Bonanza, 12 miles from this city, 13 miners were killed yesterday afternoon.

There were about 175 men in the shafts at the time.

All but the thirteen escaped without injury.

The force of the explosion was terrific, and timbers were torn from the walls of the passages for several hundred yards.

The passages were so completely obstructed that the work of rescuing the entombed men was very slow.

It is thought that the gas was accidentally ignited by a miner's lamp.

HAWAIIAN DELEGATE TO HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MR. KUBIO.

Washington, Nov. 25.—One of the attractions for visitors at the sessions of the house of representatives is the delegate from the Hawaiian Islands, now a territory of the United States. He is Prince Jonah Kūhiō Kalanianoʻole, a full-blooded Hawaiian. He is an educated man, having attended school at 'Frisco, where the other boys dubbed him "Prince Cupid." Owing to the difficulty of pronouncing his last name, he is called by his middle name in official and social circles.

RICHES

In Store for Vanderbilt Baby Which Just Arrived.

New York, Nov. 25.—The stork left a girl baby at William K. Vanderbilt, Jr.'s; home at 25 East Fifty-seventh street, yesterday. Both mother and child are doing well.

Mrs. Vanderbilt was Virginia Fair, of California. Her father, the late Senator James G. Fair, made his millions in Nevada mines, and the mother of the latest addition to the children of the New York millionaire colony has an ample fortune in her own right.

Mr. Vanderbilt met his wife when he was a student in Harvard, five years ago. They were married on April 4, 1899, and have spent much of their time abroad.

The baby is one of the richest babies in the United States. Mr. Vanderbilt will probably succeed to the enormous business interests of his father, should he survive him, and it is estimated that his fortune will amount to $75,000,000. Already he is enormously rich.

HANNA BOOM IS GROWING IN THE SOUTH

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 25.—That certain Republicans are determined to get for Senator Marcus A. Hanna the presidential nomination next year is positive from the amount of literature floating in this city and sections of North Carolina. Circulars and newspaper clippings have been received by Republicans and Democrats alike, urging them to work for the nomination of Senator Hanna and use their influence in forming Hanna clubs all over the South.

Rumor Not Believed.

Liverpool, Nov. 25.—A rumor, the source of which cannot be traced, is current today that while the Star liner Cedric has been in collision with a Lamport and Holt liner in the mid-Atlantic and that the Cedric sank with all hands on board. The rumor is nowhere credited, but friends of those aboard the Cedric are anxiously awaiting news of her arrival in New York. The Cedric is due in New York tomorrow.

At Toledo Frank Retzlaff's little son died of diphtheria yesterday. The mother is a Christian Scientist and called no doctor, the father says. Four other children in the family have been exposed.

PEACE

Now Practically Assured

Settlement of Car Strike at Chicago

AGREEMENT DRAWN UP IN THE MAYOR'S OFFICE.

TERMS PUBLICLY ANNOUNCED.

After Two Weeks Chicago Car Strike Is Brought to a Close--Traffic Resumed

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Peace in the street car strike practically was assured this morning. At that hour a provisional agreement was drawn up in Mayor Harrison's office that needs but the ratification of the members of the union to make it binding on both parties. Both passed judgment on it last night, signed it and promised to urge the men to accept it. The terms are as follows:

Wages—Company and men agree to arbitrate, present scale to be set aside and the actual worth of labor to be estimated without regard to wages paid at present. (This may raise some wages and lower others.)

Routing of Cars—Two propositions made; men may take choice; one is a minimum of eight hours and a maximum of eleven, all within limit of fifteen hours. The other alternative is an opportunity to earn ten hours pay in fifteen hours.

Closed Shop—Company retains the right to discharge, discipline and hire its men without interference of the union in any way. Shop to be open to union and non-union men alike.

Employment—Company will take back all of its striking employees except those who have been guilty of violence since November 12. This includes those who went on a sympathetic strike. The strike would have been fully settled and the cars running today if a mass meeting of the men which was held at Federation hall had not adjourned at midnight. The 2,000 strikers who were present grew tired of waiting for peace terms and left with the understanding that they should gather again at 9 o'clock this morning.

The men voting to accept the terms as referred, will report for duty in uniform at the company's headquarters at noon and the regular resumption of traffic will take place.

The striking street car men at 11:45 met this morning and voted to accept the agreement drawn up early this morning.

GOV. PEABODY OF COLORADO.

He has petitioned President Roosevelt to send regular to Colorado where coal as well as gold miners are on strike.

Entertains Col. Bryan.

London, Nov. 25.—American Ambassador Choate gave a luncheon to William Jennings Bryan today. The affair was a brilliant one. Those present included the Earl of Danbigh and Onslow, Sir Clinton Darvins, Sir Robert Giffen, Lord Giffen, Lord Mount Stephen, Sir Gilbert Parker, former Chancellor of Exchequer, Ritchie, Premier Balfour, Secretary White, of the American embassy, and Rt. Hon. Leonard Courtney, the well-known Unionist member of parliament.

Woman Rewarded

Toledo, O., Nov. 25.—Anna McCready, of this city, is $12,000 richer because of kindness shown during the past 15 years to William Robison, a Scotchman, who died here recently. He had no near kin and Miss McCready will receive it as will his entire fortune with the exception of $500, which is left to a Philadelphia woman.

THE DEATH OF GREEN REMAINS A MYSTERY

New York, Nov. 25.—The murder of Andrew H. Green by Cornelius Williams, colored, shocked the city. The development of the negress, Mrs. Elias, or Davis, in the case gives it an air of mystery which District Attorney Jerome will be called on to solve. The latter has already stated that he is positive the woman never knew Green, but that some mysterious white man who resembles Green was her protector. Williams killed Green believing him to be the "man in the case," although what reason he had to be jealous no one seems to be able to figure, as he had not met the woman for 15 years.

WIFE

Willing For Husband to Marry the Young Girl.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 25.—The sensational elopement of Hugh C. Williams, a married man and a father, with 15-year-old Jennie Mae Powell, which resulted in the arrest of Williams and his conviction for abduction, and ten years' sentence in the penitentiary, may terminate in a marriage. Williams' wife, who lives at Vicksburg, has written Dr. W. F. Hamner, Williams' attorney, saying she is satisfied Williams and Miss Powell are attached to each other and declares she is willing to secure a divorce in order that they may marry. Nothing now remains but the consent of Miss Powell's father.

FIFTY INJURED.

New York, Nov. 25.—Fifty persons were injured in a rear end collision on the Brooklyn Rapid Transit elevated road near Jamaica at midnight last night. No one was fatally hurt, but five were seriously injured.

KEEPS SCHOOL BUT TEACHER HAS NO PUPILS

Mt. Gilead, O., Nov. 25.—Miss Sarah Scott, teacher of the country school in and she is free from the cares and trials of the ordinary teacher. She is a teacher, school and all. She walks two miles each morning, rings the school bell at the regular time of convening, observes recess and noon lunch hour and dismisses school at 4 o'clock. But she has not a single pupil.

When she was appointed last August it was expected that some children in the district would be sent to school. However, all the young folk were qualified for the district high school and so Miss Scott had none to teach. Being under contract, the directors told her to observe the regular school rules, and this she does. Regularly each day she reads from the first primer and does a problem or two from the arithmetic. When this is finished she has time for sewing and reading. She patiently waits for the first young American to instruct.

Senator Platt and Gov. Odell, it is claimed, have reached an agreement politically. Platt is to be leader of the New York organization and Odell will in detail direct the New York campaign next year.

U. S. MINISTER TO COLOMBIA.

FEELING GROWS

That Colombia Will Declare War on United States

When Panama Canal Treaty Is Ratified by Government

Troops Will Be Sent to the Isthmus by Uncle Sam to Take Possession and Relieve the American Admirals Now There.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Upon the ratification by Panama of the canal treaty the Ninth and Sixteenth regiments of infantry, now at Forts Madison and Slocum in New York, and McPherson, in Georgia, and the Twenty-eighth mountain battery will be sent to the isthmus to take possession of Panama and Colon and the several islands given into the keeping of the United States. The purpose in making provision for sending soldiers is to free the admirals in command of the naval forces from the responsibility of preserving order on land.

Were disorders to arise threatening the transit of the isthmus Admirals Glass and Coghlan would have to land marines and thereby make it necessary to keep their ships in isthmian waters longer than intended.

If Colombia should make an attempt to send troops overland to the revolted state, this government will not wait for the ratification of the treaty. The mere fact that Colombia undertook to do anything of the kind would be considered a menace of the free transit and the dictum of the United States that there must be no fighting on the isthmus. The feeling is growing that Colombia will declare war against the United States, but no development is expected before the arrival of General Reyes and his fellow commissioners. It is believed that after he has been given official information that there can be no backward step on Panama and advises Bogota to that effect, a declaration of war will be made by the Marroquin government chiefly for the purpose of saving itself from downfall and not with any idea of doing any fighting.

MORE OF A SENSATION THAN WHEN PRINCESS LOUISE ELOPED.

Berlin, Nov. 25.—It is today reported that Princess Alice and Emilio Materni, the coachman with whom she eloped, have been located at Sori, in the Italian Riviera. The princess is attended by two Saxon baronesses.

The elopement of Princess Alice with her coachman is causing even more of a sensation than did the flight of Crown Princess Louise of Saxony with the French Tutor, M. Giron.

It is authentically stated today that the princess ran away a year ago in company with a Saxon nobleman and with him toured the continent in an automobile. This she did in retaliation for her husband's liaisons with a Dresden actress. Prince Frederic challenged this nobleman, whose name has been suppressed, and crippled him in a duel. The prince forgave the princess formally, though he has not since cohabited with her.

The princess picked up Materni in Italy last February, it is said, and began her liaison with him there. Finally she brought him to Caernitz castle and continued her relations with him throughout the summer.

Meanwhile Materni had fallen in love with a servant of the castle and had married her. The princess, jealous of her lover's preference for another, insisted that they should leave the castle together. She wished to thus separate Materni from his wife. The 16-months-old baby of the couple was left with Prince Frederic's relations.

HANNA WILL FIGHT

Emphatically Says He Will Keep Up His Attack on Gen. Wood--Interesting Testimony Will Come Before the Senate.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Two sessions were held by a subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, which is investigating the charges against General Leonard Wood, nominated by the President to be Major General. An adjournment was taken until Friday at 11 o'clock, when Major J. Runcie will be the first witness.

It was stated at the close of the last session that probably more than two weeks would be occupied in hearing the witnesses the committee already has determined to summon. Then, if, as generally believed, a committee is named to go to Cuba, an adjournment will be taken until some time next March, which is considered the best time to visit the island.

Opponents to the confirmation of General Wood openly express the opinion that the Military Affairs committee will report the nomination unfavorably to the Senate, but declare that when this course is taken some charges will be presented to the Senate which the committee has excluded from its testimony.

From the attitude of Senators opposed to the confirmation of General Wood it is certain that a demand will be made for the appointment of a subcommittee to go to Cuba to inquire personally into several of the charges.

Major Rathbone iterated his determination to go to Cuba at the same time for the purpose of pointing out the lack of information which forms the basis of many of his charges.

Major Rathbone's testimony, with emphasis, hammering the floor his testimony in explanation of his of the marble room of the Senate with personal charges. He asserted that he was "There is where the fight committee is engaged. Major Rathbone will be."

It is reported that Wood's friends are trying to hold the threat of a "Cuba" account in 1898, court-martial over Major Runcie's head because of his criticism of Wood, a superior officer. It is said that Major Rathbone sent a letter to the Senate Committee on Relations with foreign statements he has hitherto made in relation to the fact that he had presented a petition a

LIVELY SCRIMMAGE TO OWN THIS VOLCANO.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 25.—A lively scrimmage is taking place at White-water, near this place, over a volcano. The volcano is at present extinct, but matters are about as eruptive within the crater as in the old days when it was spouting forth fire, smoke and lava.

The volcano is 1,500 feet high and 2,000 feet in circumference. It has been found to be one mass of minerals of different kinds. There are rich deposits of borax, of cement, of gold, and several other valuable minerals have been found, to say nothing of several small diamonds worth from $10 to $20 each, which encourage the finders to believe that larger and more valuable stones may rest in the volcanic bulk of the mountain.

The scrimmage is occasioned by the rush of prospectors to the field. Most of the ground has been filed upon twice and the men are fighting for possession of the disputed claims. Several capitalists are waiting for the disputes to be settled to purchase the properties.

Tomorrow's Game

Every one who possibly can should attend the football game at the Y. M. C. A. Athletic field Thanksgiving day, and by a display of the local team's purple and white, encourage the boys in their attempt to gain a victory over the Denison team.

It should also be remembered that everyone who goes will be expected to pay 25 cents admission as on this day there are to be no complimentary seats.

"A COSTLY VICTORY."

The Minneapolis Journal, whose loyalty to the Republican party cannot be impeached, concludes an editorial on the November elections under the caption of "A Costly Victory—Perhaps," with the following:

"If the elections are to have the effect of confirming the standpaters in the error of their way and in rallying to them the undecided, it would be better for the Republican party if it had lost in every one of the eleven states that counted noses last Tuesday."

The Sioux City, Iowa, Tribune, commenting on the above paragraph from the leading organ of the Republican party in Minnesota, says:

"To those who have political foresight, and whose partisanship does not blind them so they cannot use it, this deliverance is impressive. The very existence of the standpaters themselves, their isolated but imperious voices raised in behalf of the monopoly shelter, are the surest proof of popular opposition. Because of the great political power wielded by the monopolies, the standpaters, even in a minority, can defeat the desires of the masses for the time being, and flatter themselves that the Republican victories this fall gave them license to follow this course. But if they do, the victories will prove costly to the Republican party, as the Minneapolis Journal and all sane party newspapers are able to understand."

With the Manila dispatch of a couple of days ago that three hundred Filipinos have been killed in a series of recent engagements, under the direction of General Wood, and many more were carried off dead or wounded, the pacification of the islands can hardly be called complete. The only comfort is that the killed were Filipinos, and not Americans; but take it any way, it is the heritage of a needless war. The record of natives killed and wounded is not in the direction of peace or prosperous government. The idea of settling them down as so many "niggers" hardly meets the requirements of civilization, and is not a vindication of imperialism as an American graft by a long shot.

The Republican National committee will meet on the 11th of December at Washington, with Senator Hanna and President Roosevelt as the directing forces, to fix the date and place for the next National convention. According to custom the Democratic National committee will meet on the 22d of February to perform the same duty. It is probable that both conventions will be held in June, the Democratic convention some weeks after the Republican.

The Panama Overnight Revolution.

(Pittsburg Post.)

It is general belief by the well informed that the barracks coup in Panama, which opened a new chapter, and a most discreditable one, in American history, was planned in New York, and encouraged from Washington, to overt acts of secession. Very much as if Great Britain and France had confidential advisers at Columbia, S. C., when the first secession convention was in session in that State arranging as to the future trade relations of the Confederacy with foreign powers. So far as history discloses, neither Great Britain nor France had such agents. But how was it as to the United States on the isthmus and at the celebrated conference at the Walcott in New York, which named the hour of the Panama overnight revolution? The French and Panama traders had their goods on the bargain counter, and Uncle Sam made it certain he was equally ready to "put up." The Panama junta wanted nationality and the prevention of Colombian measures of suppressions. The "junta"—not government—was assured this would be all right, and President Roosevelt issued his orders to our naval commanders accordingly. The recognition followed promptly, and with it the treaty ratification, which pledged the "junta" ten millions of dollars for the canal route, with a few hundred thousands a year for incidentals. This was all there was of preparation, or negotiation. All the rest was as easy as "touching the button."

In his official defense of the President's course Secretary Hay described the revolution as totally unexpected, and he was and is our guardian in foreign affairs and should know. We quote this from Mr. Hay's statement: "This brings us to the sudden and startling events which have so recently attracted the attention of the country and of the world. * * * They went to work, with that talent for prompt and secret organization to which there is no parallel among people of northern blood; they prepared the machinery of revolution in advance and suddenly in a single day * * * they accomplished their independence." Anyone would suppose from that account that Mr. Hay was taken completely by surprise when the rebellion at Panama took place. Was Mr. Hay candid in his statement? With his knowledge orders had gone to the American admiral to prevent the landing of any armed force by the Colombian government within fifty miles of Panama. This dispatch was sent before the first overt act of secession. But there is history, not official, but trustworthy, that Mr. Hay had been visited by a delegation of Panama revolutionists several weeks before, who acquainted him with their plans. Three leading New York papers state the undoubted facts with full particulars. The New York Times has this to say about the visit of the Panama junta delegate to Mr. Hay:

Mr. Duque is said to have informed Mr. Hay that the revolution was scheduled to take place on September 23, the day after the time for the ratification of the treaty * * * and to have asked for the United States Government's aid in carrying it on. Secretary Hay of course answered in a strictly correct diplomatic manner, and would promise nothing. However, according to the Times, Mr. Hay then indulged in this astonishing piece of advice to the Panama plotters:

Besides, Mr. Hay is said to have added, September 23 was much too early, pointing out to Mr. Duque that a revolution coming the day after the expiration of the treaty would be an absurdity, since revolutions usually require time for preparation.

The agent sent to Mr. Hay went to New York the same day, and the revolution was postponed, as Mr. Hay suggested, from September 23 until November 2.

This is a wonderful revelation. It discloses much of the mystery of the birth of the new republic of Panama. Notwithstanding Mr. Hay's declaration that it came on him with the suddenness of a tropical thunderstorm, it shows that Mr. Hay was deliberately plotting, advising and countenancing the revolt—this secret was against the friendly nation of Colombia—early in September last. The trap was not sprung until November 2, and a few hours afterward Roosevelt and Hay were ready with their recognition, and a few hours later with their treaty putting ten millions and the protection of the American navy in the hands of the Panama junta of speculators, politicians and canal stockholders. Regard these things, men and brethren. Are they a credit or a damning disgrace to the fair fame of the American people? The truth will out, and we are not at the bottom of the well yet.

CLEVELAND

Feels Humiliated By Constant Use of His Name As a Candidate.

New York, Nov. 25.—The New York Evening Post publishes the following: Persistent gossip that ex-President Grover Cleveland is at least considering the wishes of Charles F. Murphy and other political leaders that he again accept a nomination for the presidency on the Democratic ticket, are met today by a statement of a close personal friend of Mr. Cleveland to the effect that the ex-president certainly has given no encouragement either to Mr. Murphy or to his personal friends to persist in speaking of him as a presidential possibility. "You may say authoritatively," said this gentleman today, "that Mr. Cleveland thinks there are good men in the Democratic party, distinguished enough and able enough to fill the office of president, and he feels humiliated by being repeatedly singled out as if he were the only man in the party fit to lead it."

HANNA'S BOOM

IS AGITATING THE FRIENDS OF ROOSEVELT.

The President's Supporters Seem More Anxious About His Election Than His Nomination.

New York, Nov. 25.—What is the extent—the real strength—of the Hanna boom? The question is agitating the administration's friends at large, just now. The phase of the talk is not what Hanna thinks of it or what the national convention will do about it—since both are already determined—but to what extent the talk represents a restless feeling in the Republican party throughout the country—that irresistible desire for a "change" that just New York City to Seth Low and that imperil New York's electoral vote, no matter who is at the head of the Republican national ticket.

There are Republicans who have less confidence in Roosevelt's election than in his nomination. These Republicans are not endeavoring to thwart the president's plans and ambitions. They are sincerely supporting him in his various policies, and will fight hard for him in the campaign. They believe that his nomination rests more with himself than with any Republican leader or group of leaders; but they also believe, and some of them frankly tell the president, that he has a much more serious problem before him than his nomination—the question of his election. It is their opinion that the Republican nominee, whoever he may be, will have a hard time next year.

Naturally, they say, it will be harder for one who has had to face the responsibilities of the past two years. They rest their opposition to Roosevelt's nomination on that summary of the situation, and, having made him acquainted with the facts, leave with him the responsibility of determining his own course.

Governor Odell arrived here en route to Washington, where he is to see President Roosevelt. When asked the reason for his trip to Washington, Governor Odell said: "I received an invitation from the president, asking my presence in Washington." He declined to say whether it was a private matter or official business that was taking him to the capital.

RUMOR

Concerning Mrs. Taef Promptly Denied by Her Father—Starred by Malicious Persons.

Another rumor was in circulation this morning on the streets that Mrs. Charles E. Taef, daughter of Mr. Gus Kern, had packed her things and had left her husband. An Advocate reporter saw Mr. Kern today and he most emphatically denied that there was any trouble between his daughter and her husband. He said that they all took breakfast together and that Mr. Taef went to his work as usual. Mr. Kern is of the opinion that the reports of the alleged trouble between Mr. Taef and his wife were started by malicious persons.

An Animal Story For Little Folks

Why the Little Pig Was Whipped

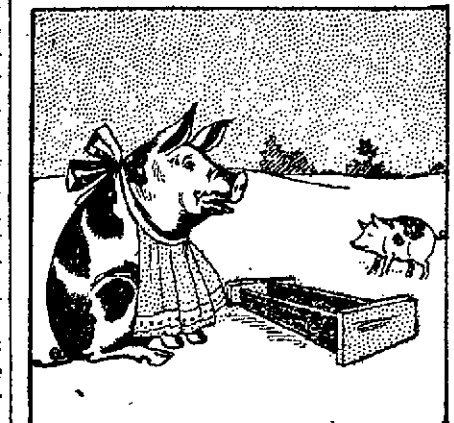

Did you ever hear the story about the little pig who ate his big sister's dinner? I know you have not, for the story has never been told.

Well, there was a little pig who loved to tease his sister, just as many and many a boy loves to tease his sisters.

Now, this little pig had one sister who was very particular about her manners, which, you will admit, was an excellent trait. She wouldn't think of sitting down to a meal without a nice clean apron on. At the dinner hour she would hurry to her room, fasten on her apron and then go to the trough in which her food was served. "Why is it that you only half fill my trough?" asked she of her mother. "I always fill it," was the reply.

"But it is always only half full," declared the little pig's sister.

And the little pig laughed, for he knew very well why the trough was only half full. Whenever he saw his sister start off to get her apron he would slip slyly up to the trough and eat as much of her food as he could before she could get back.

One day the sister decided to watch him, and she actually caught him in the very act of gulping down her meal. "I was only fooling," laughed the little pig.

"I shall tell mamma on you," replied his sister, "and she will paddle you with a shingle."

"You would not be a telltale, would you?" asked the little pig, who did not relish the idea of a whipping.

"No, I don't believe I would," replied the sister thoughtfully. "I shall not tell on you."

"That's a good girl," laughed the little pig.

"But I shall paddle you myself," added the sister. Then she caught the little tease and gave him a good sisterly thrashing, and he never touched her meals again after that.—Detroit Journal.

The Foolish Bears

There had been a great time in the Bear family deciding where to spend the summer.

They at last decided to go to the mountains and wrote to the hotel kept by Mr. Monk for board.

"The terms are cheap," said Mr. Bear, "but I see they don't take children. Whatever should we do about Tiny?"

"Oh, leave that to me," said the wife. "There is no reason why they should not take our baby. He is so very good. If we could get him in once, I know they'd let him stay."

"Yes, and it says," continued Mr. Bear, reading, "that no pets are allowed in the rooms, and you know we have to take Mr. Dooley, the parrot, with us."

"Oh, I'll fix all that," answered his clever wife. "This is the plan: We will put Tiny in your dress suit case and get him up to the room, and it will be all right. Then, if we have to, we can leave Dooley in the hall at the hotel."

"No, you don't," thought Dooley, who was listening. "If they don't take me in their room, I will give the whole thing away."

Well, the day was set, and after a long journey they all reached Countown and went up to Mr. Monk's hotel. Mr. Bear took the pen and registered, "Mr. and Mrs. Bear."

"Any children?" asked the clerk. "None whatever," answered Mr. Bear.

"Well, you can't take that parrot upstairs," said the clerk.

"Oh, no, of course not," said Mr. Bear sweetly. "We expect to leave him on the porch."

"Leave nothin' on the porch!" yelled Dooley. "Take that kid out of the bag!"

"Shut up!" yelled Tiny from inside. It was all spoiled. The secret was out. Mrs. Bear took Tiny out of the bag, while the clerk leaned over the counter and grinned.

"Back to the woods!" yelled the parrot.

"What did I tell you?" said Mr. Bear sadly. "It pays best to be honest."

"I think so too,"—Pittsburg Dispatch.

WOMEN KEPT FROM VIEW

Harems on Camel Back—One of the Extraordinary Sights in Morocco—The Women Guarded from Sight of Men Most Jealously.

A MOORISH HAREM EN ROUTE. W. B. Slater sends the foregoing picture and writes as follows from Tangier, Morocco: When a Moor travels he does not get a camel for each of his wives, but puts the whole harem bodily on the back of one camel. The great beast with his long thin legs, swaying neck and big striped pavilion on his back presents an extraordinary spectacle. The uninitiated would say the pavilion was a bale of goods, but this would be wrong. The bale is full of wives. The women of the whole Mohammedan world are guarded from the sight of man most jealously. If in the street—where the better class women seldom go unattended—they are veiled from the eyelid downward; if at home, the interior courtyard is their promenade and there are no front windows to permit views of the street; if traveling in towns they are usually attended by great black, oily-skinned eunuchs; if traveling in caravans in the interior they are bunched together inside these pavilions on camelback. In the accompanying photograph a caravan is shown crossing a shallow stream. The great camel in the center with the heavily-tasseled carrier is that of the sheik of the traveling tribe. The Arab is courteous when he meets anyone he feels he can trust, and European ladies have often visited the harems. They report that though the life of the women is very narrow, and their interests extremely limited, they appear to be kindly treated as a rule. The Arab regards his women as his absolute property and they are allowed little liberty and no authority. Sometimes the women are good looking, with dark complexions and soft, lankorous eyes.

FORGOT

TO PAY HOTEL BILL BEFORE THEY LEFT.

Man and Woman Known As Mr. and Mrs. Long Suddenly Left the Hotel Ludlow

A man and a woman who had been stopping at the Ludlow hotel on North Fourth street, registered as Mr. and Mrs. John Long, left Monday evening without the knowledge of the proprietor, to whom they were indebted for several weeks' board and lodging.

As soon as their absence was discovered every attempt was made to intercept them, but without success. It was learned that they went to Grapville and boarded a northbound T. & O. C. train.

Long and his wife came to the Ludlow about three weeks ago and secured instant credit with Mr. Wallace, the landlord, by announcing that he was a glassblower at the Everett company's plant. Since his departure, however, it has been learned that he was employed only as a common laborer at wages that would be far from sufficient to pay the expenses of himself and wife at the hotel.

At the Ludlow the couple stated that their home was formerly in Pennsylvania.

Dying of Consumption!

This Young Lady Was Given Up—Every Effort Had Failed—"Blood Wine" Saved Her and She is Now Well.

After taking the first bottle she got out of bed and sat in an invalid chair, and after the second bottle she came down stairs, and kept on improving right along until she had taken six bottles, and now she is as well and strong as she ever was in her life, and if you should see her you would not think there were any signs of consumption.

"After being given up by the doctors to die, 'Blood Wine' spared her life, and we feel very thankful. We have been using 'Blood Wine' in the family and have told many friends of it, and they also find that it is a grand, good medicine."

Mr. J. W. Pearson of 605 F St., N. W., Washington, D. C., Agent for Equitable Insurance Co., testifies as follows:

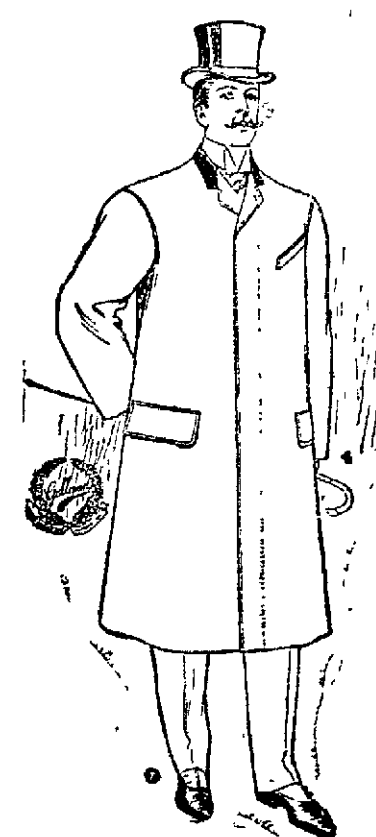

"I can safely testify as to the truthfulness of every word of the above testimonial, as I have been a weekly visitor to the young lady's house for over four years in the capacity of an insurance collector; and having been a medical student at one time, and knowing the nature of her disease, I was as much astonished at the result of 'Blood Wine' as were her attending physicians."

Survivors Questioned.

San Francisco, Nov. 25.—The four survivors of the French bark Francois Coppe, who reached this city from Tomales bay, were closely questioned by the vessel's agents, but their stories of the disaster revealed nothing new. They will be sent back to their homes by the French consuls. Nothing can be saved of the stranded bark or the cargo of coal. So far as known, no other men from the Francois Coppe except the nine now at Gualolala bay, were saved, eleven having perished, including Captain Inye. Wreckage is floating ashore at Tomales bay and a search is being made for dead bodies.

The Tate Case.

Mrs. Emma Inman, who is a comparative stranger in Newark, who was living with her nephew, Ellsworth Dunwiddy, on Grant street, said Wednesday morning that she had gone to Dolaware, Tate's home, Sunday morning last, at Mr. Tate's request, to take charge of his children. On Monday night Mrs. Tate came to the home and seemed to be very solicitous about her children. She intimated that Mrs. Inman's presence was no longer needed, so the latter left and is now employed in the home of Officer Herbert Atherton at the city prison.

A double wedding, in which the principals were Mr. Martin Monahan and Miss Martha Baakenstosh and Mr. Michael Monahan and Miss Blanche Fulk, the grooms being brothers, occurred Wednesday morning. The ceremony took place at the St. Francis de Sales church at 7 o'clock and was performed by Father O'Boylan with the nuptial mass, in the presence of a number of the friends. At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the homes of the brides on South Second street, where sumptuous wedding breakfasts were served. The grooms have been residents of Newark for about a year and came here from Montpelier, Ind. Since coming to Newark they have been employed in the molding department of the B & O shops and are highly esteemed. The brides are charming young women.

The ceremony took place at the parsonage of St. Paul's Lutheran church, on Hudson avenue, and was performed by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Schindler. Charles Yousse, a brother of the groom, and Miss Maymie Tonge were the attendants. The groom is a son of Mr. Fred Yousse, the well-known grocery clerk, and is a young man well and favorably known in this city, at present employed at Lovett's laundry. The bride is a most estimable young lady and was formerly employed by Henry Sayre, the plumber, as a collector. The happy couple, who have the congratulations of all their friends, left for Columbus, where they will make a short visit.

CEMENT BLOCKS

Elit Hull Buys Three Block Making Machines and Will Manufacture in Newark.

Mr. Elit Hull, who is the owner of one of the prettiest additions in Newark, while traveling over the state recently was much impressed with the beauty of certain buildings constructed of the new building material, cement-concrete, that is now coming into general use. So much impressed was he with the durability, beauty and attractiveness of the buildings that he purchased three Normandin Cement Concrete construction block machines, used for the purpose of manufacturing the concrete blocks. Mr. Hull's purpose is, as far as possible, to have all the new houses that are built in his addition constructed of this material. The three machines will turn out a large number of blocks per day, equivalent to many thousands of bricks. Mr. Hull says it is quite probable that a stock company will be organized in Newark for the manufacture of these blocks. He says that he has obtained the absolute right for the city of Newark and for five miles around the city to manufacture the blocks. One of the machines will be delivered the first of February and the other two on the first of April.

COURTESY IN THE HOME.

It is Essential to Happiness in the Family Circle.

There is no place where there is greater need of true, refined, everyday courtesy or where it will be more greatly appreciated than in the home circle. Yet in how many households do we see an entire lack of it. The husband comes in tired and surly, hurries down his meal, gives the cut a kick and departs without one kind word or gracious act to any one. The children are noisy and quarrelsome. The mother, tired and nervous, has only sharp, reprimanding words for her husband, the children and the servant. The whole atmosphere appears surcharged with the very quintessence of disturbing and disheartening elements.

Let a visitor come in to make a neighborly call, however, and how quickly everything is changed. Both husband and wife welcome him with the sweetest of smiles and courtesy. When the visitor departs, he is bowed out with the most charming grace and in silver tones invited to call again.

This is eminently right and proper, but why should not the same consideration prevail among those who are bound to each other by ties of family relationship—"our own, whom we love best?" Why should not the wife, the child, the servant, whom you meet every day in the most intimate relations—why should they not, I ask, be vouchsafed some courtesy as well as the guest who calls for a brief hour? "Charity begins at home," we are told, and I think courtesy should too. No one, be he man or woman, can stand weeks and years of continual fault finding or habitual discourtesy. You bow to your next door neighbor when you meet her in the street and give her a kind or cordial word. Why not be respectful to members of your own family? Try it. You will find you will be happier for it. Your home will become an ideal one, and every one will be influenced to good by the light which will radiate from it.—Pittsburg Press.

THE JIMSON WEED.

Probably a Legacy to Us From South America or Asia.

Once upon a time the name of Jamestown must have been very sharply shortened. Within the memory of many people now living James was pronounced "Jeems," in fact, we believe that that was the accepted pronunciation of our Virginian forefathers. But "Jim" must have been the diminutive of "Jeems," as well as of James; at least we judge so because what is popularly known as "the jimson weed" really is the Jamestown weed.

Nor is there any reason to suppose that this contraction was made jeeringly or sneeringly. More probably it grew into use "jess so," and we find intelligent Americans to whom it has never occurred that there is any connection whatever between Jamestown and Jimson. All the same, the authorities say that "Jimson" is "short" for the name of the place, where the English made their first permanent settlement in what is now the United States and where the Old Dominion's first capital was located.

The jimson weed, however, is not a native plant, but probably came to us from South America or Asia. It is a question how it got to Jamestown, but we believe it is conceded that it is not indigenous to Virginia. If it was deliberately and designedly imported, it must have been because of its medicinal value; certainly not for its odor, which is vile; certainly not for its flowers and leaves, because they do not compare in beauty with those of scores of native plants. And, while this weed is now recognized as having some medicinal value, it may not have had that reputation "then" with Europeans. The Chinese, however, use it to some extent medicinally and may have done so from time immemorial, that country being little given to the acceptance of new ideas or new remedies.—Richmond Times-Dispatch

"I'd like to exchange this," said a woman who the other day entered a retail bookstore.

The clerk unwrapped the bundle and glanced at its contents.

"I'm sorry, madam," he said, "but we can't do it."

"Why not?" she cried. "You've always exchanged books for me heretofore."

"I know," replied the clerk politely, but firmly, "but we can't change this. It's 'The Leopard's Spots.'"—Philadelphia Press.

Claddagh Wedding Rings.

The Claddagh wedding rings are absolutely different from the ordinary plain gold finger band which a cynic once declared to be "the sign manual of a man's impertinence and a woman's folly." Those used by that picturesque colony, the Claddagh fisher folk, are in the form of two clasped hands holding a heart. It is a quaint, pretty and symbolical design, and, oddly enough, the very old specimens are thought to be the most valuable.

And Then Not Do It.

LIFE PLANT

Renews Life.

The Very Best Tonic Ever Discovered.

The blood is a great source of health or disease in the human system. If the blood is pure, the individual is strong and healthy; if the blood is impure or diseased then there is sickness and disease in the whole system.

Impure blood causes such diseases as Eczema, and Scrofula. LIFE PLANT effects its wonderful cures by acting through the blood. It is impossible for that blood poison, uric acid, or any other blood impurity to exist in the presence of our harmless medicine. The phenomenal success of LIFE PLANT in the many forms of blood diseases, warrants us in stating that it is a positive cure for Eczema and Scrofula. Read what Mr. M. P. Hobbs says of LIFE PLANT:

Wilmet, O., Jan. 2, 1903.

Gentlemen:

Two years ago I contracted a very aggravated case of Eczema. I tried many kinds of medicine called cures, but all failed. I was persuaded by a friend to try LIFE PLANT, and by taking two bottles was cured. I got the real truth of this statement by LIFE PLANT and be convinced.

Yours truly,
M. P. HOBBS.

Better get LIFE PLANT next time. It's a wonder.

JOHN ANKELE TOOK DOSE FROM WRONG BOTTLE.

For a Time His Condition Was Serious—Took Quantity of Hair Tonic at Barber Shop

Mr. John Ankele, the well-known barber, nearly died Tuesday evening as a result of a mistake that he made in taking a dose of medicine, as he supposed.

Mr. Ankele was engaged in shaving a customer, and as he was not feeling well, it was suggested that he take a drink of whisky. Some liquor that had been put in an empty hair tonic bottle had been on the shelf in front of the mirror for some months, and Mr. Ankele took a bottle, drank a swallow and resumed shaving his customer. In a few minutes he became so ill that he could not finish his man, and another barber completed the work. In a little while Mr. Ankele was in convulsions and rapidly sank into unconsciousness. Dr. C. F. Legge was hastily summoned, and for two hours worked with the stricken man before he revived and was pronounced out of danger. He was then removed to his home on West Church street, where today he was able to get up.

It developed that Mr. Ankele got hold of the wrong bottle and had swallowed a small quantity of hair tonic, the active principle of which is a poison whose symptoms are those of strychnine. The mistake was easily made, as the liquor and tonic were in similar bottles.

An Animal Story For Little Folks

Fair Play

Little Bill had got the craze for using a slung shot. He had played hooky from school one day to cut the "crotch." He had crept softly into his father's library, opened the table drawer and extracted a rubber band to furnish the shooting force. He had cut the palm out of his sister's kid glove to make the "stone holder," and now he had left the schoolhouse behind him once more and was off in the green meadow after some frogs to shoot.

"Jug-a-rum, jug-a-rum!" croaked the frogs along the bank. "Knee-deep, knee-deep!" piped the "peepers."

Bill lay upon the bank and waited.

"WHY DON'T YOU SHOOT?"

"Hope they're a big bumper here," wished Bill to himself. "I've got a dinky pound stone here to soak him with."

Presently a green head and two big eyes appeared above the green scum on the brook. Bill turned to get his "dinky stone" to put it in the slung shot; then he turned.

But what a sight met his eyes! These eyes nearly popped out of his head. He dropped the stone and tried to scream, but couldn't. There sat the frog, as large as a cow, looking severely at Bill with his big eyes. Presently it said:

"Why don't you soak him?"

Bill's tongue seemed tied. "Better shoot before he jumps," continued the frog, with a horrible grin.

"His legs will make a fine supper."

Bill tried to stammer out something about "Beg-p-pardon; I didn't e-c-come out f-for you."

"No; you came for the little fellows who couldn't hit back," said the frog. "Why don't you take some one of your own size? Why don't you shoot at me now? I'm all ready."

"I couldn't kill you; you're too big," said Bill, getting a little used to things.

"That's just it," answered the frog. "It's because we're little things. Do you think, my brave boy, that if you were always little and I was always big you would shoot me? I guess not. Why don't you take a fellow of your size? But just give me that shooter. I guess you'll have no use for it further."

With a great grip he swallowed the shooter, croak and all, and dived into the brook kerbunk! At least this is the tale Bill told the teacher next day.

MRS. M'MULLEN

Died at Her Home on South Third Street Tuesday Afternoon, After a Week's Illness.

Mrs. John P. McMullen, aged 59 years, died at her home 128 South Third street at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, after a week's illness with bronchitis, and other throat and lung complications.

Mrs. McMullen was born in Madison township, but had been a resident of Newark for 40 years. She leaves a husband and one daughter, Mrs. James M. Browne, two sisters, Mrs. L. S. Lake and Mrs. Henrietta Bush, both of Newark, two brothers, Franklin P. Miller of Union Station, and Harry C. Miller of Oklahoma.

The deceased had been identified in early womanhood with the Madison township Methodist church, but for years she had been an invalid, and was not able to attend the services of any church.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late home, Rev. L. S. Boyce conducting the services. Interment in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Noah Andregg, the insurance agent, has removed his place of business to No. 19 1-2 North Third street, first stairway south of Doty house, in same office as Franklin's insurance agency. On account of sickness my business will be looked after by Franklin's insurance agency.

WARE TIRED

The Commissioner of Pensions Will Retire a Year Hence—A Scramble For His Place

Washington, Nov. 25.—It can be announced that Eugene F. Ware, the commissioner of pensions, will retire from that office by about the middle of November next year, and will return immediately to the practice of law in Kansas. His contemplated action is generally understood among Kansas politicians, and has been the subject of several interviews with the president, which had been kept secret. The decision to resign and to return to private life is the result of his long felt dissatisfaction with the nature of the duties of his office, a feeling that has grown steadily since the early days of his administration of that office. When asked about the report of his plans Mr. Ware declined to admit that he has or ever had any intention of tendering his resignation. Mr. Ware's acceptance of the president's tender of the office shortly after the appointment of his predecessor, H. Clay Evans, to the post of consul general to Great Britain last spring, created considerable surprise, as he had a large law practice.

He had not been in the office long before he began to feel the effects of the large amount of routine work.

Ex-Representative Richard Whiting Blue, who was the representative at large from Kansas during several sessions of congress, and ex-Representative Samuel W. Peters, of Kansas, have been mentioned in connection with the succession to Mr. Ware. It is said that the president has not yet reached a decision.

Mr. Ware's plans have become known to a number of officials in this city, and they have been expecting announcement of his resignation at any time.
